PROGRAM

Day 1
Thursday 18 September 2025

Opening
9:30 – 9:45	Opening Address
Keynote 1	Chair: Lise Crevier-Buchman (CNRS, LPP UMR 7018, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle)
9:45 – 10:30	John ESLING University of Victoria What Polynesian, Iroquoian, Semitic/Cushitic, Nilotic, West African (ATR), Tibeto-Burman and Germanic Languages Share in Laryngeal Articulation
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break

Session A Laryngealized Vowels in Western Sichuan Qiangic Chair: Jalal Al-Tamimi (Université Paris Cité, CNRS, LLF UMR)
11:00 – 11:30	Elvis Yang HUANG Southwest Jiaotong University A Tentative Survey of Pharyngealized Vowels in Two Minyag Varieties
11:30 – 12:00	Jiangyao ZHENG Peking University Uvularized Vowels in Rongpa Choyul: Acoustic and Phonological Analysis
12:00 – 12:30	Amélie ELMERICH,¹ Angélique AMELOT,¹ Katia CHIRKOVA,² Yao DONG,² John ESLING,³ Claire PILLOT-LOISEAU,¹ and Lise CREVIER-BUCHMAN¹ ¹ CNRS, LPP UMR 7018 ² CNRS, CRLAO UMR 8563 ³ University of Victoria Acoustic Correlates of Uvularization in Mawo Qiang: Toward a More Comprehensive Phonetic Account of the Plain–Uvularized Vowel Contrast
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break

PROGRAM

Session B Quantifying Articulatory Patterns in Complex Sounds Chair: Alexandre ARKHIPOV (University of Hamburg)
13:30 – 14:00	Louise MCKEEVER CNRS, LPP UMR 7018, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle Use of Locus Equations to Quantify Anticipatory Coarticulation of Uvularized Vowel Contrasts in the Mawo Variety of Northern Qiang
14:00 – 14:30	Ekaterina SHEPEL and Jalal AL-TAMIMI Université Paris Cité, CNRS, LLF UMR Velar ~ Uvular Contrast in Languages With and Without Epilaryngeals: The case of Alutor and Chukchi
14:30 – 15:00	Didier DEMOLIN,¹ Michael KARANI,² Arne-Lukas FIETKAU,³ João Vítor POSAAMAI DE MENEZES,³ and Peter BIRKHOLZ³ ¹ CNRS, LPP UMR 7018, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle ² University of Dar es Salaam ³ Institute of Acoustics and Speech Communication, TU Dresden Optical Distance Sensors to Measure the Articulation of Complex Sounds
15:00– 15:30	Coffee break

Session C Register Contrasts in Austroasiatic and Beyond Chair: Louise McKEEVER (CNRS, LPP UMR 7018, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle)
15:30 – 16:00	Sireemas MASPONG,¹ Patrick MCCORMICK,² and James KIRBY¹ ¹ Institute for Phonetics and Speech Processing, LMU Munich ² Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University) Covarying Properties of Register Contrast in Mon
16:00 – 16:30	Francesco BURRONI,¹ Sireemas MASPONG,² and James KIRBY² ¹ Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University) ² Institute for Phonetics and Speech Processing, LMU Munich Glottal Coda Fo Perturbations are Modulated by Register Contrasts and Individual Differences: Acoustic and Electroglottographic Evidence from Mon

PROGRAM

16:30 – 17:00	Katia CHIRKOVA,¹ Amélie ELMERICH,² Angélique AMELOT,² John ESLING,³ Claire PILLOT-LOISEAU,² and Lise CREVIER-BUCHMAN² ¹ CNRS, CRLAO UMR 8563 ² CNRS, LPP UMR 7018, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle ³ University of Victoria Tone and Phonation in Baima (Tibeto-Burman): Evidence for Register-Tone in the Tibetosphere
17:00 – 19:00	Welcome Reception

Day 2
Friday 19 September 2025

Keynote 2		Chair: Katia CHIRKOVA (CNRS, CRLAO UMR 8563)
9:30 – 10:15	Marc GARELLEK University of California San Diego Acoustic Analysis of Phonation Type: Best Practices for Language Description and a Case Study of Highland Totonac
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break

Session D		Experimental Approaches to Phonation and Voicing in Tibeto-Burman Languages
		Chair: Camille SIMON (INALCO, LACITO UMR 7107)
10:45 – 11:15	Jiexiong ZHENG and Kun SHEN Peking University A Case Study of Phonation and Consonant-F0 Relationship in Amdo Tibetan of Hainan
11:15 – 11:45	Ao QIU Peking University Vowel Glottalization as a Realization of the Velar Stop Coda: An EGG Study for Bokar
11:45 – 12:15	Zihe LI Peking University Perceptual Differences in Voicing Contrast Between Early and Late Bilinguals: A Case Study of Jiuhe Naxi
12:15 – 13:30	Lunch break

PROGRAM

Session E Instrumental Phonetic Approaches to Under-Documented Languages Chair: Bowei SHAO (CNRS, LPP UMR 7018)
13:30 – 14:00	Jenifer Andrea Vega RODRIGUEZ,^{1 2} Thiago CHACON,² Rodrigo ALEXANDRE,¹ Nathalie VALLÉE,¹ and Christophe SAVARIAUX³ ¹ CNRS, GIPSA-SYLDO ² University of Brasília ³ Grenoble Images Parole Signal Automatique Étude acoustique et articulatoire exploratoire des plosives coronales non voisées du baniwa de l'Içana
14:00 – 14:30	Sirui DU and Peggy MOK The Chinese University of Hong Kong An Acoustic Exploration of Aspirated Fricatives in Gyersgang Tibetan
14:30 – 15:00	Didier DEMOLIN,¹ Alain GHIO,² and Andrew HARVEY³ ¹ CNRS, LPP UMR 7018, Université Sorbonne Nouvelle ² Laboratoire Parole et Langage, CNRS, Aix-Marseille Université ³ University of Bayreuth Faculty of Languages and Literatures Hadza Phonetics: Articulatory, Aerodynamic and Acoustic Aspects
15:00 – 15:30	Coffee break
Session F Phonological Descriptions and Sound Change in Tibeto-Burman Languages Chair: Yao DONG (CNRS, CRLAO UMR 8563)
15:30 – 16:00	Shan BAI Ghent University The Phonological Sketch of the Mojiang Biyo
16:00 – 16:30	Yu SUN¹ and Yunzhuo XIANG² ¹ Sorbonne Université ² CNRS, LPP UMR 7018 Rethinking the /u/-/o/ Merger in Honi Varieties: Phonetic Evidence from Tuha Haoni
Closing Session
16:30 – 17:00	Closing Session: Reflections and Perspectives
